

CAMP RULES

Thank you for visiting Migombani Camp. For you to ensure a most pleasant stay, our staff is here to provide any service to the best of their abilities. Please follow the below camp rules to enjoy a carefree stay at Migombani Camp:

- You are welcome to prepare your own food in the outdoor kitchen (bring your own kitchenware). We kindly request to not bring your own meals and drinks to the public areas such as the restaurant and pool.
- Please put all waste in the designated bins, which are provided by us, and leave nothing behind as animals are attracted to it.
- When using the kitchen please limit your space to a minimum. Only use one sink at a time as other guests would like to use the kitchen as well.
- Kindly leave all public areas clean and tidy after using.
- Help us to conserve water and don't leave the tap running.
- Remember that you are staying in a natural camping environment where wild animals may appear, such as baboons. Please do not feed or approach them but keep your distance from the animals.
- No music is allowed in the communal kitchen or the surrounding area.
- Please be respectful of other guests on the site. Loud noise and nuisance will not be tolerated at any time and all noise must cease after 10 p.m. Guests who are causing nuisance may be required to immediately leave Migombani Camp.
- The night peace in the camp lasts from 10.00 p.m. to 6 a.m. During that time driving with a motor vehicle and setting up or tearing down a tent is prohibited. After 10 p.m. entering or exiting the camp with a motor vehicle is prohibited.
- Barbecues and fire pits can be hired for a private campfire. Also firewood and charcoal can be bought at the camp. Please obey any restrictions on fires. They may be limited or prohibited at certain times.
- The swimming pool is open until 10.00 p.m.
- No smoking is allowed inside the tent.
- Pets are not allowed at the camp.
